

NORTH DAKOTA STUDIES

Summer Teacher Institute 2020

North Dakota Heritage Center &
State Museum

July 27-30, 2020

2 Credits

This event has been postponed due to COVID-19 concerns. Please sign up for our Education Newsletter and watch ndstudies.gov for more information regarding future workshops and events.

An immersive professional development opportunity for High School Educators

Gain creative insights from experts

Investigate new approaches to think critically about sources

Develop culturally responsive lesson plans

Collaborate with your fellow teachers on standards and best practices

Register at ndstudies.gov/eventbrite

For more information, contact teacher of record, Erik Holland at eholland@nd.gov.

Been teaching U.S. History or North Dakota History for years?

Are you new to North Dakota Studies?

Looking to embed more social studies topics in your language arts classes?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, register for a 4-day, 2 credit workshop, investigating DPI's 2019 North Dakota Social Studies Content Standards.

- Embed project-based activities in your routine
- Take a deep-dive into the documents, photographs, and objects at the State Historical Society of North Dakota
- Learn techniques to communicate to your students the value of thinking like a historian
- Participate in exercises to organize, analyze, prioritize, and evaluate selected primary sources

Create hands-on activities and lesson plans for your students centered on strong research, reading, and writing skills including:

- Developing research questions
- Understanding historical context
- Analysis and making sense of the evidence
- Adding it up and drawing conclusions